

Correct Terminology on Russian Aggression Against Ukraine

| INCORRECT / WRONG / RUSSIAN NARRATIVE | CORRECT | NOTES |
|---|--|---|
| The Ukraine, in the Ukraine | Ukraine / in Ukraine | According to the Constitution of Ukraine and the UN language. |
| Ukraine crisis / Ukraine conflict / War in Ukraine / Russian War in Ukraine | Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine / Russia's war against Ukraine / Russia's aggression against Ukraine | Russia's full-scale military invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 became the expansion of Russia's aggression against Ukraine that has been ongoing since February 2014. |
| Russia's special military operation in Ukraine | Russia's unprovoked full-scale military invasion of Ukraine started in 2022 (in continuation of Russia's aggression against Ukraine that has been ongoing since February 2014). | |
| Russian liberation / Russian liberators | Russian occupation / Russian occupation army / Russian invaders | |
| Ukraine was part of Russia | Ukraine and Russia were parts of the Soviet Union | |
| Mostly Russian-speaking east of Ukraine is culturally/mentally closer to Russia | Speaking Russian does not mean being culturally / mentally closer to Russia. Russian-speaking Ukrainians represent a legacy of Russian colonialism and long-term policy of Russification | including as a result of policies of language substitution and population replacement that the Russian empire and the USSR have pursued for over three centuries. |
| Ukraine's attacks on Crimea / Russian Crimea | Ukraine's legitimate efforts to de-occupy Crimea, which is a part of Ukraine's sovereign territory within the internationally recognized borders. | The Autonomous Republic of Crimea and the city of Sevastopol, parts of Ukraine's territory, have been temporarily occupied by the Russian Federation since 20 February 2014. |
| War in Ukraine is not a genocide. (If so, then every war is a genocide) | Russia's war in Ukraine is genocidal by all indications. | Russia's war is genocidal in conception and is genocidal in practice. One major sign that Russia is committing genocide is that systematic violence is perpetuated against not only male civilians, but against women, children, and the elderly. Russia has shown an "annihilating mindset" by attacking civilians who are evacuating and forcing people |

| | | into "filtration" camps. The forcible transfer of children to another group - by having them reeducated or adopted by Russians - violates the Genocide Convention. Among other violations of the Genocide Convention are the continued denigration of the history and identity of Ukrainian people as a justification for war and hatred, attacks on Ukrainian museums, churches, and libraries. Russia's discourse about the war also allegedly violates a specific tenet of the Genocide Convention: making false allegations of genocide. Before the full-scaled aggression, Putin and the Kremlin have falsely accused Ukraine itself of committing genocide against ethnic Russians, declaring Ukrainians to be "Nazis," and used that claim as a pretext to |

| Russian officials in Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia regions | Representatives of the Russian occupation administration in the temporarily occupied parts of Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia regions of Ukraine. | justify its invasion. |
| Annexed regions of Ukraine | Temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine | |
| Annexation of regions of Ukraine | Temporary occupation and attempted annexation of territories of Ukraine | |
| Kyiv government | Government of Ukraine / Ukrainian government | |
| By supplying weapons to Ukraine, Western countries only prolong the conflict | Ukraine has the inherent right of individual or collective self-defense according to Article 51 of the UN Charter. Supplies of weapons to Ukraine, which defends itself against Russia's war of aggression, are legal and do not require Russia's consent. The sooner Ukraine receives required number of weapons and defeats Russia on the battlefield, the sooner Russia's war of aggression ends and peace returns to Europe. | |

| Russia attacks legitimate military targets | Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine is infringement of the international law. Russia deliberately attacks not only military positions, but residential areas and critical civilian infrastructure such as power stations as well. | |
|--|--|--|
| Sanctions against Russia caused food and energy crises | Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine caused food and energy crises. Sanctions are necessary to undermine Russia's ability to finance its war of aggression against Ukraine. Stronger sanctions will force Russia to end its war of aggression against Ukraine. | Ukrainian food export was severely undermined by Russia's blockade of Ukrainian sea ports, causing food shortage and high prices across the globe. The rise of energy prices was brought by actions of Russia, which cut supplies to Europe even before the sanctions took effect. |
| Russia conducts evacuations of civilians from the Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia regions | Russia conducts forced transfers and deportations of civilians from the Donetsk, Kherson, Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia regions. | These are international crimes according to International Humanitarian Law. |
| Russia held referendums in Ukraine's regions | Russia held sham (null and void, unlawful) "referendums" in the temporarily occupied regions of Ukraine under the barrel of a gun. | |
| Russia invited foreign observers to its referendums in Ukraine | Russia's occupation administrations invited puppet/marginal "foreign observers" loyal to the Kremlin during sham "referendums" | |
| Russia's mobilization campaign in Crimea and former Ukrainian oblasts | Russia's unlawful mobilization of Ukrainian citizens in the parts of sovereign territory of Ukraine, temporarily occupied by Russia. | Under the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949, the occupying Power is prohibited to compel protected persons to serve in its armed or auxiliary forces. |
| Russia's passportization campaign in Crimea and former Ukrainian oblasts | Russia's unlawful passportization of Ukrainian citizens in the parts of sovereign territory of Ukraine, temporarily occupied by Russia. | |
| Putin was provoked to hit back for the Crimea Bridge explosion | Putin unleashes missile terror on residential areas and critical civilian infrastructure of Ukraine before and after explosion on the Crimea Bridge. His only goal is to undermine our resolve to defend ourselves, destroy and subordinate Ukraine. | Russia had been constantly hitting Ukraine with missiles before and after the Crimea bridge explosions. Shifting the blame on the victim of aggression by suggesting that Putin "responds" or is being "provoked" is totally misleading. |
| Ukraine is preparing to use a dirty bomb | Ukraine has never developed nuclear bombs after it gave up its nuclear arsenal in the 90s / Russia may use fake news about Ukraine's | https://www.iaea.org/newscent er/pressreleases/iaea-inspector s-complete-in-field-verification- activities-at-three-ukraine-locati |

As it was confirmed by the IAEA Director General: "technical and scientific evaluation of the results we have so far did not show any sign of undeclared nuclear activities and materials" Ukraine has never conducted any military and biological activities, including its own territory. Ukraine has never developed biological weapons and does not have any specialized facilities for this purpose. Such facilities had only existed on the territory of the former USSR within the borders of the Russian Federation which inherited the corresponding infrastructure and facilities. All medical and biological facilities of Ukraine are used for peaceful | ons-no-indications-of-undeclar ed-nuclear-activities-and-materials |
